I authorize the Regents of the University of Michigan ("the University") to record, duplicate, distribute, publicly perform or display, make derivative works of, or otherwise use photographic images and audio and/or visual recordings of me or works of authorship I have presented or submitted to the University ("the Materials"). I also understand and agree that:

- I give the University a non-exclusive, royalty-free, license in perpetuity to use the Materials.
- Copies of the Materials will belong to the University, and I will not receive payment or any other compensation in connection with this release;
- The University may publish and distribute copies of the Materials in any medium, including but not limited to: print publications, video streaming websites, podcasting, and broadcast media;
- The University may make copies of the Materials available, consistent with its educational mission, on a free and open basis to the world as Open Educational Resources (OER);
- I have had a chance to discuss this form with the University staff and have received complete answers to all my questions; and,
- I release the University from any and all liability that may or could arise from the taking or use of these recordings or works and I have the right to sign this agreement for these Materials.
