

OER PERMISSION TO USE MATERIALS

COURSE NUMBER	COURSE OR PROJECT TITLE
AUTHOR(S) NAME(S)	AUTHOR(S) TITLE(S)

I understand and assert the following:

- 1. GRANT OF PERMISSION: I grant to the University of Michigan (U-M) perpetual, royalty free, non-exclusive permission to use, reproduce, distribute, publicly perform, publicly display, and permit others to use, copy, translate, modify, and further distribute via the U-M Open Educational Resources ("U-M OER") web sites and in any other media now known or hereafter developed, the materials provided by me to the U-M OER program for the Course or Project Title and Number listed above (the "Materials").

I understand and give permission that through the U-M OER program the Materials will be available to third parties who will be granted perpetual, royalty free, non-exclusive permission to use, reproduce, distribute, publicly perform, publicly display, translate, and modify the Materials under the provisions of the Creative Commons license I have checked below. I understand that nothing in this permission transfers or assigns copyright in the Materials to U-M.

Please choose one of the following Creative Commons licenses for the Materials.

☐ Attribution (by)

This license lets others distribute, remix, tweak, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This is the most accommodating of licenses offered, in terms of what others can do with your works licensed under Attribution.

For the license details, see:

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/>.

☐ Attribution – Share Alike (by-sa)

This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work even for commercial reasons, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. This license is often compared to open source software licenses. All new works based on yours will carry the same license, so any derivatives will carry your attribution, and also allow commercial use.

For the license details, see:

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/3.0/>.

☐ Attribution – Non-commercial (by-nc)

This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work non-commercially, and although their new works must also acknowledge you and be non-commercial, they do not have to license their derivative works on the same terms.

For the license details, see:

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/3.0/>.

☐ Attribution – Non-commercial – Share Alike (by-nc-sa)

This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work non-commercially, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. Others can download and redistribute your work, but they can also translate, make remixes, and produce new stories based on your work. All new work based on yours will carry the same license, so any derivatives will also be non-commercial in nature.

For the license details, see:

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/>.

- 2. ATTRIBUTION: Unless I decline, below, to have my name associated with the Materials, U-M will require all users of U-M OER to attribute any use of any of the Materials in a form that will include my name, my title or status, the year the Materials were created (as indicated on the Materials), and any copyright information (as indicated on the Materials). U-M OER agrees that it will not post my telephone number, email address or any other contact information (unless I request it), and will post only U-M OER contact information.

In the case I do decline, U-M OER will attribute the Materials to my School / Department (as indicated by the Course or Project). For record keeping purposes, U-M OER will retain personal information associated with the Materials, but will not post any personally identifiable information with the Materials.

3. AUTHORITY AND THIRD-PARTY PERMISSIONS: I represent that, except where I indicate otherwise, I, to the best of my knowledge, hold the copyright or other proprietary right in the Materials or that the Materials are in the public domain, and that I have authority to grant this permission. I further represent that I will identify and/or label, to the best of my knowledge, all parts, items, and materials incorporated into the Materials that may be subject to a copyright or other proprietary right held by a third party. I understand that U-M will attempt to obtain any required permission or copyright clearances necessary for publication of the Material on U-M OER and that I am not obligated to do so. If any of the Materials are based upon work that I completed from a grant or agreement with a third party, other than UM, I will fulfill any right of review or other obligations required by such contract or agreement prior to submitting those portions of the Materials for use in U-M OER.

Important: Unauthorized use of third-party copyrighted work may be illegal and unethical, and may raise significant financial liability and damage the reputation of U-M and its faculty. Contributors must exercise scrupulous care to identify the source of every third-party element in the Materials.

I am 18 years of age or older and have voluntarily chosen to participate in the U-M OER program.
